NOTES: Willow is a 5 yr old mare that stands 15.1 hands. Well-mannered and good temperament. Very gentle and willing horse. She would be a great head/heel horse prospect, barrel horse prospect, or keep using her on the ranch. Willow has been used all over the ranch has had tons of cattle caught outside and sorted on her. She has been started on the head side tracking the hot heels in the arena. She had 60 days of barrel training by NFR qualifier Lacinda Rose last summer. No hump, buck, or silliness. 100% sound. She's an easy keeper and will be an asset anywhere she goes. (918) 244-8088

She has been hauled to several ranch rodeos and ropings, had thousands roped on her outside, and my young nephew has taken her over the last couple years. She is an honest, all-around mare that can do whatever you want - from the cowhorse to the conformation classes to the roping pen - she can do it. And when you are done with all of the competing, you can still have a phenomenal broodmare that is 100% in every way. Both of her parents are AQHA point earners and NRHA money earners. Four Six Hancock is a son of Tanquary Gin that Craig Haythorn raised. He'll add heart and grit to any pedigree. Bottom side also hints of Craig Haythorn breeding. The Cinco colts we have started are quiet and very sensible with a cowhorse demeanor. Blue roan color doesn't hurt either! Will mature 14.1 hds, 1,000 lbs. (405) 990-8419

I've been riding pens and checking grass on this mare and will until sale day. She rides around in your hand, she has a big motor and a lot of buttons so she's not a beginner horse but she is a good using horse. She stands 15.1, good foot and good bone. UTD on teeth and shots. ## KELLY SMALLWOOD

Coffeyville, KS

Kelly grew up showing Appaloosa horses all across the United States, competing on a national level. He won the Youth Jumping at the National Show. In college he judged on the Horse Judging team and placed 2nd High Individual at the AQHA World Show. After college he trained and showed horses professionally and had his greatest successes showing calf roping horses and, later, team roping horses. His most recent success was winning the Flint Hills Cowboy Challenge in Fall 2024. He competed and won against people half his age. The competition was televised on the Cowboy Channel and RFD TV.

We are flattered to have Kelly as one of our judges. He is a longtime consignor and has competed in this Proven Session many times and has scored very well. We consider him one of our peers in the area. He and his family are great horsemen that compete at high levels.
